

Are you a Newcomer to Canada?

WoodGreen's Programs & Services Can Help You!

- Assistance with addressing settlement related issues, completing forms, and applying for benefits
- English language classes for all levels including programs for internationally trained professionals with online activities available for learner's children
- Connections to other community and government programs, resources, and services such as employment, education, training and volunteering, financial counselling, and mentorships
- Tutoring classes, Canadian citizenship test preparation classes, newcomer parenting supports, and children's activities

For more information, please contact us at:

416-405-5100

or email at:

newcomerinfo@woodgreen.org

All services are offered online and over the phone in various languages